

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Audrey Lee Turner-Roberts was born October 18, 1945 at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, New York. She was raised in Brooklyn by her parents the Late Dorothy Turner Brown and the late Berkeley Brown. Audrey was the oldest of four siblings, Robert M. Brown who preceded her in death, Corene A. Brown and Crystal D. Griffith.

Audrey was the proud mother of her four L's, Lisa, Liwanda, Leslie and Lillian. She was also an extremely proud grandmother, she was affectionately called “Shimmy” by her grandchildren, Julien, Jared, Jason and Madison. Shimmy loved celebrating her grandchildren. They kept a smile on her face.

Audrey was educated in the New York City School System. Audrey worked for the New York Telephone Company for over 10 years before realizing she wanted to follow her passion.

Audrey received her cosmetology license from Wilfred Academy of Beauty in 1982. Soon after Audrey became the first entrepreneur in her family when she opened her own beauty salon, Fantasia's in Springfield Gardens, New York. Throughout her cosmetology career, Audrey would establish lasting friendships with many of her clients and their families.

In 1991, Audrey accepted the Lord as her personal Savior at Pilgrim Church in Brooklyn, New York under the leadership of the late Arch Bishop Roy E. Brown. Audrey loved reading her bible and listening to uplifting Christian music. Her faith and trust in Jesus helped her through her illness. She was extremely brave and courageous and didn't focus on her condition. She expressed her gratitude for life and focused on the well being of her loved ones.

In her most recent years Audrey was a school bus monitor for children with special needs. She would prepare breakfast sandwiches to distribute to them in the mornings. Her love didn't stop there over the years she was a mother to many. Her children's friends called her “Ma” and her passing has left a void in their hearts as well.

Audrey Lee Roberts transitioned from this life on November 14th, 2019 in Bethlehem, PA. She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Lisa (Martin) McLaughlin, Liwanda (Kevin) Williams, Leslie Edwards and Lillian Roberts; her grandchildren, Julien McCall, Jared McCall, Jason Edwards and Madison Roberts; two sisters, Corene A. Brown and Crystal (Jerome) Griffith; two sisters-in-law, Marcella (Gene) Jenkins, Donna L. Brown; two Aunts, Maude Martin and Jessie Turner; three nieces, Lashawn Brown, LaChime (Rashan) Brown-Womack and Latoya (Lonzo) Branch; a host of great nieces and nephews and her life long best friend, Andrea Slowe- Johnson.
