Obituary

Teresa Boyd-Williams entered into eternal peace on Saturday, November 16, 2019. She was born on September 27, 1950 in Belhaven, North Carolina to the late David King Boyd and Laura Boyd. Teresa was the youngest of fourteen brothers and sisters. She attended and graduated from Belhaven High School.

Teresa loved to sing just like one of her older sisters. During high school that older sister left Belhaven to accept a job for songwriters Carol King and Gerry Goffin. That sister later became the music icon Little Eva with the recording of her hit song, “Do the Locomotion”.

When Teresa graduated from high school, she moved from North Carolina to New York City and made it her permanent home. She met her husband Allen Williams, Sr., a musician and a truck driver in 1969 and they were joined in holy matrimony on February 19, 1972. They were blessed to celebrate forty-seven years of marriage. However, they loved and cared for each other for a total of fifty years.

Teresa was hired in November of 1970 by Con Edison and was a hard dedicated worker. She was committed to her career. She was employed there for forty-six years before she retired on September 27, 2016.

Teresa aka Terri lived by the motto, “If I can help somebody, my living will not be in vain”. Terri accomplished her goal. Whatever she became involved in she was committed to give it her best and there were no shortcuts.

Terri’s compassion, love and dedication was shown through her service to her family, whom she loved immensely, her church, her missionary work, her Eastern Star affiliation, her friendships, and above all to her God. She was a God-fearing woman that loved her Fountain Spring Baptist Church family and friends. Terri sang in the choir and later became the church’s secretary.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband and best friend of 50 years, Allen Williams, Sr.; daughter, Fenicia Williams; sons, Johnny Hogan, (Shawnetta Boston) and Allen Williams, Jr., (Terean Wilkins); nine grandchildren, Kimani D. Hogan, Jaron Hogan, Jhykerra Hogan, Jhy’Rik Hogan, Allyn Siquan Williams, Ronjae Williams, Tyreak Williams, Wynter Williams and Demetrius Small; sisters, Ida Bunch and Charlotte Boyd; one brother, David Boyd; in-laws, Joyce Williams, Lady Kathryn Williams-Jullien, James Williams and Mitchel Bellamy; and a host of nieces, nephews and the entire Fountain Spring Baptist Church Family.
