Obituary

Abbey Valrose Bethea was born to Ophelia Bethea and Alexander Miles (preceded her in death) on October 27, 1974 in Brooklyn NY. She departed this life on Nov 22, 2019 in her home at the age of 45 years old.

Abbey was educated in the NYC public school system and received her H.S. Diploma from Canarsie High School. Abbey was full of life, she lived her life as she wanted and she lived by her own rules you either loved her or stayed away from her. Abbey was devoted to her family. She loved her family and friends dearly. Abbey was a ride or die girl. If Abbey was on your team that's all you needed.

She was a loving daughter always helping, and checking in on her mother daily. She was attentive, charismatic and didn't carry a grudge. Everyday was different she had a good sense of humor and loved to laugh. Abbey was a good sister she could fuss and cuss with you one day and the next day be kind and pleasant putting the day behind her and starting a new.

Abbey was a devoted mother she loved her children and grandchildren. My mom was my mom we might not see eye-to-eye but I always had your back. I never gave up on you and I could never stay mad at you. Because of you I am the woman that I am today. You taught me a lifetime of things. You taught me how to survive and how to love. I love the fact that you still tickle me and I'm 24 years old I always acted like I didn't like it but deep down inside I didn't want you to stop. Every time you curse someone out or even me I just laugh because I know you didn't mean it. I know you love me no doubt about it. Aubrey loves you so much that he could never stop talking about you. Taylor didn't get a chance to really get to know you. They will miss you we all will. I love you so much and will miss you. Rest in peace Mommy

She leaves to mourn her mother Ophelia Bethea, 2 daughters Abnesia Bethea and Radaysia Farmer, 5 grandchildren children Aubrey Bethea, Amiya Brown, Aniya Brown, Madeline Brown and Taylor Marshall. Two sisters Sandra Berhea Windsor and Audrey Bethea. Jerry Bethea, Douglas Bethea and Joyce Ann Berhea all preceded her in death. Half siblings Randi, Matti3, Linda, Gene, Jamie, Terry McGill. Wayne, Clifford and Dale Lovitt, Wanda Bethea and Keshia Jones. A goddaughter Miracle Gilyard. One brother in law Michael Windsor. She leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She will be truly missed by those that loved her.

Broken

To no longer see your face
Breaks me everyday
So suddenly you were taken
That I didn't get to say
Just how much I love you
And that you were my life
The hurt I felt when you passed
Cut me like a knife
I'll never be complete again
I never will be free
From this grief, a solid thing
Deep inside of me
I wear a mask of coping
But am in complete despair
I cannot mend what's broken
My hearts's beyond repair
I'll smile if I have to
But that is just a mask
And I'll say that I'm OK
When people kindly ask
But I cannot be happy
It is something that I lack
Never will be whole again
For I cannot get you back!
