Obituary

Timothy Brooks was born on September 10, 1949 in Florence, South Carolina to Mack Brooks and Alberta Ashley (both preceded him). He was the fifth out of six children. He migrated to New York City in 1959 with his family and lived on Reid Avenue in Bedford Stuyvesant, Brooklyn before settling long term in Hell's Kitchen, Manhattan.

While attending Charles Evans Hughes High School, at the age of 18, he was drafted into the United States Army and received an honorable discharge. On November 29, 1970, Timothy Brooks married his junior high school sweetheart, Gloria Ayala. From their union, they had two children, Timothy Brooks, Jr. and La'Kisha Alvarado.

Timothy pursued a career as a NYPD Officer and retired after serving twenty plus years in the force.

He enjoyed pranking his family and cracking sarcastic jokes; listening to Al Greene, Temptations and some of the popular old-school and gospel music. He didn't miss a day of playing his daily numbers.

He later remarried to Betty Lewis and relocated to Charlottesville, Virginia.

He leaves behind: his wife, Betty Lewis; son, Timothy Brooks, Jr.; daughter, La'Kisha Alvarado (Fredrick); sisters, Dorothy Morgan, Miriam Maxine Boyd (Elijah), Cynthia Brooks, Terry Harris, and Annette Brooks; brothers, Bernard Brooks, Jonathan Brooks and Jerome Brooks; six grandchildren, Jazmine Mikell, Deija Brooks, Syeria Alvarado, Jeida Brooks, Timothy Brooks and Sadè Alvarado; and a host of extended family and friends.

To Say Goodbye

To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.
