

A portrait of Terrence Weston, a Black man with a short beard and mustache, wearing glasses and a light blue shirt. He is smiling and looking slightly to the right. The background is a soft-focus image of a sunset or sunrise over a body of water, with warm orange and yellow tones in the sky and blue tones in the water.

Obituary

On Tuesday, November 19th, 2019 beloved father, son, and brother Terrence Weston affectionately called “Terri” passed away from complications from a pulmonary embolism at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York. He leaves behind to cherish his memory his loving mother Pauline Josephine Weston, his son Terrence Jr. “TJ” Weston, his sister Venus D Weston-Webb and brother in law Ronald Pierre, brother Charles Weston, Aunt Ruth Brown, nieces Ebony Denise Weston Pierre-Sheppard and Lea Renee Weston-Webb, former wife Cruz Weston, a host of cousins, family and friends.

Terrence Weston entered this realm on June 17th 1963 in Brooklyn New York. Terrence was a precocious child, often taking to new skills and trades without formal training. Terrence was known and loved by everyone throughout the neighborhood. To know him is to have fallen in love with his wit and his charm. He would spend his teenage years in Queens, New York where he discovered his knack for entrepreneurship and passion for giving back to others. While formally educated in New York, Terrence prided himself on being a self-taught entrepreneur, opting to build his own business fixing and selling computer equipment.

Terrence journeyed on to make North Carolina his home. He settled in Smithfield, North Carolina where he became an active member of Temple Baptist Church in Selma, North Carolina. Terrence became active in their homeless and prison ministries; oftentimes he would send packages to prisoners and help those in need by his own volition. Terri furthered expanded his entrepreneurial endeavors by venturing into real estate, purchasing and flipping numerous properties in North Carolina and the surrounding area. Always one to spread the wealth and knowledge, Terrence often helped his friends and family learn about real estate and how to use real estate to build a legacy and generational wealth. When Terri wasn’t working or helping others he enjoyed vacationing in Florida.

Above all else, Terrence loved and cherished his family. He left an indelible mark on the hearts of those he kept closest to him, especially his mom and his darling nieces Ebony and Lea. On behalf of the Weston family, we would like to thank you all for the outpouring of love and support during this most difficult time. May we all cherish his good deeds, love of family and love of dancing. May we find comfort in knowing that he has gone home to rest in the arms of the Lord and that one day we will be reunited in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
