

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
When day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering
Softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days,
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Oh happy memories that I leave behind
When day is done.*

You're Forever In My Heart

*For all you were to me in life
And all the joy you brought,
Your memory is with me
In every single thought.*

*The pain I felt at losing you
Will never go away,
But knowing that
You're in my heart
Helps me through each day.*

*When you were here I always felt
That nothing could go wrong,
But you're still my inspiration
And your memory keeps me strong.*

*And though my heart is heavy
It's also full of love,
And that's enough to comfort me
While you're in Heaven above.*

A SPECIAL MESSAGE TO POP POP POP POP

I'm going to miss messing around with you everytime I came over. I am also going to miss hearing you calling my name out at my baseball games. I am always going to remember watching Little Bill with you every morning before I went to school. I remember when you gave me your basketball jersey. I was so excited because I always wanted to be as good as you in basketball. I LOVE YOU and I will always have you in my heart! Love Arianna
(your Little Na-Na)

I have fought the good fight. I have finished the race. I have kept the faith Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

2 Timothy 4: 7-8

Abraham (Dungaree & Uncle Bank) King departed this life and gained his crown on Tuesday, November 26, 2019. He was born on March 15, 1950 in Pineville, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Estelle Rock, late Edward Lucious Glover and Elizabeth "Mina" King.

In 1977, Abraham met the love of his life Denesia Booker. He married Denesia in 1980 and from that union they had two sons Abraham and Aaron.

Abraham King was educated in the Bayonne School System. He worked at the Dept. of Parks and Recreation as a Bus Driver for over 30 years until his retirement. His love for his job was very evident because he always had a smile when he drove the children to various destinations.

He was truly dedicated to his work. Abraham's true passion and love was for basketball. You always saw him with the ball in his hands or playing the game. He loved the game so much he would referee for the city as well as coached at the PAL. His love for the game of basketball he shared with anyone who was willing to learn.

You would also see Dungaree at the stove or grill he loved to cook and did it well. He could burn. What was amazing and distinguished about Dungaree was that he was outspoken, fun, and always greeted you with a smile. At events he would get up and give a speech. He would start out serious and at the end of the speech you would always be laughing.

Abraham will be missed, especially seeing him sitting on the porch of 19th Street. Abraham was a dedicated friend. His three friends who were with him through thick and thin were Michael Weathers, Leon Gayle & Larry Harris.

Abraham was an amazing and dedicated Family Man his children were his life, his wife was his heart and his granddaughter Arianna was his light. There wasn't anything that he wouldn't do for them. His love was unconditional.

Abraham was preceded in death by his mother, Estelle Rock; his father, Edward Lucious Glover; sisters, Annie B. Hurtz, Elizabeth Miller; brothers, Johnny Rock, Wayne Glover and Gerald King; mother-in-law, Sandra Booker Jacob and father-in-law, Lloyd Booker Sr.

Abraham leaves his memories and love to his wife of 39 years, Denesia; sons, Ramon Clinton, Abraham and Aaron; mother, Elizabeth (Mina) King; grandchildren, Arianna, Lyam, Monet, Dasha, Darcel, & DeVonte; sisters, Helen Simmons, Mary Ann Toones, Maxine Glover, Nadine Talley (Michael) and Tammy Mitchell (Darryl); brother, Jonathan (Stephanie); father-in-law, Donald Jacobs Sr.; sisters-in-law, Mary Rock, Courtney Booker, Nicole Booker and Helne Glover; brothers-in-law, Loyad Booker (RoseMary), Walter (Denise), Jeffrey, Darren and Christian (Andrea); godchildren, Rosland Carter, Dasha Feely and Late Gionni Booker; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends. Extra Special Mention; they will forever hold their Uncle in their Hearts, Diane Golden, Rev. Debra Hall Byum, Anna Maria Hurtz and Gregory Rock.
