Reflections of Life

Frederick S. (Rick) Mann of Passaic, New Jersey, was born September 23, 1956 to the late Barbara A. Mann.

Rick was a self proclaimed genius. He enjoyed playing the lottery, singing, listening to old school music and mastering video games such as Zelda. Rick was also known as a Pool Shark, the Grandmaster at chess and an entertaining conversationalist. He also served in the United States Navy.

Rick was an amusing, intelligent (walking thesaurus), artistic, comical individual who loved his family and friends tremendously. Rick was everyone's favorite uncle.

He was preceded in death by his beloved mother Barbara A. Mann and his sister Shelly M. Mann.

On Wednesday, November 27, 2019, Rick was called home. He departed this life peacefully at Select Specialty Hospital in Rochelle Park, NJ surrounded by his loving family.

Rick leaves to cherish precious and fond memories: three sisters; Frances Mann of California, Lynette and Bridgette Mann of New Jersey, one brother; Leonard (Valarie) Mann of Georgia, three god-children; Jermaine "Jamie" Murray of North Carolina, ShyKasha Kenner of Newark, New Jersey and Toya Mann of Passaic, New Jersey, dear friends, Alice Monts, Rocky Rosas, Shareef Rosas, Sylvester West, Gregory Walker, Gerald Mance and Dennis Cason. He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, (whom he loved as his own), many cousins and friends.

Two Wings

Today I laid down to rest,
So, I closed my eyes and when I awoke I had Two Wings.

This was something new to me;
So, let's see what they could do.

I was flying high up in the sky,
As I could only say, "Wow",
Look at these Two Wings.

I flew up to heaven doors and boy what a site to behold,
Because one never knows until you get these Two Wings.
As I went through the gates, my mother and sister were waiting for me.

As they looked me over, they saw my beautiful Two Wings.
As I seen more family and friends,
My mother said, "your time has come, and this is why God blessed you with your beautiful
Two Wings."

Welcome Home!
