

She Shall be Praised

Proverbs 31: 10 and 25-31

A wife of noble character who can find? She is worth far more than rubies. She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come. She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: "Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all." Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Honour her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Carolyn “Carol” Ann Ross Elliott was born at Margaret Hague Hospital in Jersey City, NJ on October 25, 1951. She entered Heaven’s gates on November 29, 2019.

Carolyn was raised in Jersey City, New Jersey where she attended and graduated from Henry Synder High School. Carolyn known as Carol to family and friends met her husband Harry Elliott in 1971; and the two were inseparable. This union gave life to their son Shawn Elliott. Together they raised their son Shawn; but anyone who knew Carol knew that Shawn was the air she breathed; the “son” shine in her days and the quiet in her storm. She loved being his Mother and extended that unconditionally love to her grandsons. She loved to laugh, dance, and have a good time. Carol had such class and grace with a keen sense of style. She was a beautiful person and her smile will forever be planted in our thoughts and hearts.

Carol lived with her husband Harry in Jersey City till 2015. They retired and relocated to Georgia. During her residency in Georgia, Carol became ill. Despite the wearing of her illness, Carol never complained. She fought hard in her battle where she was victorious by remaining strong and as loving as ever while enjoying life. Family and Friends had their angel on Earth and when the Lord has called her Home, we all now have our angel watching over us. Carol: a Great Mom, Wife, Grandmother, Sister, and Aunt. She was compassionate as well as outspoken. Her spirit was infectious to anyone who came in contact with her and unconsciously she became Mom and Auntie to many. Her loving spirit will be truly missed.

Carolyn Ann Ross Elliott daughter of Cora Odums (Stepfather James Odums Jr.), and Willie C. Tolliver is survived by her husband, Harry Elliott; only child, son Shawn Elliott; brother, Elliot Odums; grandsons, Dominique Elliott, Chanz Elliott and William Faulk; great grandson, Elijah Faulk, aunt, Ola Mae Jones; niece, Latisha Odum, and daughter-in-love, Gia Smith.
