Reflections of Life

Otis Lee Deloatch was born in Allen Chapel, North Carolina on May 23, 1943 to the late, Flossie (Newton) and Mr. Robert Deloatch.

Otis moved to New Jersey in 1969 from New York, where he was a long distance truck driver. Afterwards he became employed at Sam's Tire Shop on Market Street, Paterson, New Jersey as a Tire Repairman, and later at another tire shop. After the death of his boss Otis became disabled, and had to retire.

He was a very kind hearted person, and loved his family. Otis would do anything he could for his family and others.

He was predeceased by his beloved parents; Robert and Flossie Deloatch; two sisters, Maggie White and Mary Daniels; three brothers-in-law, Paul White, Neil Daniels, and Jessie Stevens.

God called Otis home on Wednesday, November 27, 2019.

He leaves to cherish precious memories, his children; Keith, Gregory and Calvin Spruill, all of New Jersey; Everline Spruill, someone he depended on for over 40 years; sixteen grandchildren; forty great-grandchildren; one brother, Robert Deloatch of New York; two sisters, Mildred Stevenson of Murfreesboro, NC, and Ruth Edwards of Jackson, NC; one sister-in-law, Elqine White; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors from New York, California, North Carolina, Staten Island and Alabama.

He will remain in our hearts forever and will always be missed. We know he is rejoicing and his spirit lives on. No more pain.....

I Made It Home

I just wanted to let you know I am not in no pain, I made it home

Everything is so pretty here, so white, so fresh, so new

I wish that you could close your eyes so you could see it too.

Please try not to be sad for me.

Try to understand God is taking care of me.

I'm in the shelter of his hands

Here there is no sadness, no sorrow, and no pain,

Here this is no crying and I'll never hurt again.

Here it is so peaceful when all the angels sing. I really have to try my wings.

I'll be the first face you see when you get here.
