

"Weep Not For Me"

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night.
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight.
I am at peace, my souls at rest
There is no need for tears.
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years.
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not my strife.
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my Life.

Obituary

Sophie Page Bolden was born December 5, 1924 in Littleton, Virginia to John and Lucy Bolden. ‘Aunty Page’ transitioned peacefully just hours before her 95th birthday, at Samaritan Healthcare and Hospice in Mt. Holly, NJ. We are deeply appreciative of the care and kindness she received while at Laurel Brook Rehabilitation in Mt. Laurel, NJ as well as Samaritan Healthcare in Mt. Holly, NJ.

Page attended Virginia State College and retired from Western Electric after more than 25 years, working as an Electronics Technician. Her high energy level allowed her to also take on working as a waitress in Park Avenue Diner, part time. She loved to travel and meet new people, and often went to Canada and Virginia for vacation.

Sophie Page had no biological children so she took on the “mothering” of all her nieces, nephews, and neighborhood children throughout her life, expanding their culinary palates with her exotic dishes. She had a special fondness for Avon products, and regularly gave it as gifts to those she loved.

Sophie Page is survived by her sister, Nethel C. Moton (Tyerion Moton, Sr.); nephews, Hesham Sabur, John Carter, and Tyerion Moton, Jr; and nieces, Stephanie Woodson, Gesele Moton, and Tanya Moton Hopson (Dennis Hopson). She was predeceased by her parents, John and Lucy Bolden; and her sisters, Augusta P. Woodson and Shellie M. Bristol. Additionally, Page was loved by a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins, and close friends and family.
