Obituary

Ali Troy Fisher was born on October 4, 1978, in Kingston Jamaica. He was the youngest of seven children, the “wash belly” to Naomi and Raymond Fisher. On Monday, November 18, 2019, Ali was taken from us.

Ali attended Transfiguration Basic School and Excelsior Primary where he was an ambitious young man. At age 11 he passed the common entrance exam which led him to Excelsior High School. At the age of 14, Ali immigrated to the United States with his parents where he enrolled at Harry S. Truman High School. It was there that he embraced his love for music. No matter what sound was playing he always found a way to get on the mic to connect with the larger crowd. This love was rooted in the hours he spent hanging out with his brother’s sound Presto Mix Disco. Ali eventually wanted to keep the “vibes” going, by selecting alongside his friend on a disco called Calico. Ali also had a deep love for sports. When not playing music, he could be found kicking around a soccer ball as well as running track and field.

Ali spent some time working for Golden Krust Bakery, as a bank courier and at Strauss Auto. Following the footsteps of the men in his family, from a young age, he also worked at Fisher’s Garage. Due to this, Ali could always be found taking things apart just to put them back together. After being around cars his whole life, he developed a love for trucks. At the age of 9, Ali would be seen moving customers vehicles in and out of his father’s garage. There was a day he was taking a vehicle back into the garage and a cop thought the car was moving on its own because Ali was so small. He had to stand up in the car to drive. The cop followed the car into the garage to see who was driving. When Ali stepped out of the car the cop was astonished to see such a young child driving. He just shook his head and gave him a warning. Ali loved working on trucks but most of all he loved driving. He had a passion for being on the open road. This deep love would eventually push him to obtain his CDL Tractor-Trailer license and to open his own trucking business. Along the way, through his endless journeys around the states, Ali gained nicknames such as “Ali buk buk”, “Cranky Dread”, and “Ali Kat”. Everywhere he went he constantly made new friends, those of which would remember him forever. Ali was the life of the party and most times he was too humble to notice.

Ali fathered three children. Ali always made it visible that Candice, Ali, Jr. and Aidan were the pride and joy of his life. He was a father figure to Iyanna throughout her life. Ali also acted as a father figure to Rico, who he was ironically close in age with. Ali was always a lover of all children. He loved his little nieces, nephews and cousins all immensely.

Ali was a free-spirited and jovial individual who was beloved. Ali had a knack for keeping friends and family connected. He was treasured by everyone whom he encountered. He always ensured no one felt excluded. For instance, as Ali traveled to school daily his father had asked a juice man to give him one or 2 sky juice per day. Ali figured that since he was thirsty his friends would be too, so with his kindhearted self he would get one for each of his friends. When Friday came, his father was shocked as he heard his bill. Ali always remained true to his conviction of love, helping everyone and keeping friends and family connected as far back as four generations and childhood friends.

Ali is survived by his three children; Candice, Ali Jr., and Aidan; mother Naomi Fisher; father Raymond Fisher; grandmother Ceciline Johnson; step-grandfather Leslie Johnson; two brothers Roy Fisher and Ray Fisher; four sisters, Joy Fisher-Reid, Cambar Edwards, Ann Fisher-Hunter and Michelle Fisher-Samuels; brothers-in-law Roy Edwards, Christopher Samuels, George Hunter and Robert Reid; sister-in-law Racquel Slater-Fisher; eleven nieces, nine nephews, three grand-nieces, two grandnephews along with a host of beloved family and friends.

"It Is Well With My Soul"

When peace like a river attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot Thou hast taught me to say,
"It is well, it is well with my soul!"
It is well with my soul!
It is well, it is well with my soul!

Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

My sin—oh, the bliss of this glorious thought—
My sin, not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to His Cross, and I bear it no more;
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

For me, be it Christ, be it Christ hence to live;
If dark hours about me shall roll,
No pang shall be mine, for in death as in life
Thou wilt whisper Thy peace to my soul.

“God Will Take Care of You”

Be not dismayed whate'er betide,
God will take care of you;
Beneath his wings of love abide,
God will take care of you.

Refrain:

God will take care of you,
Through ev'ry day,
O'er all the way;
He will take care of you,
God will take care of you.

Through days of toil when heart does fail,
God will take care of you;
When dangers fierce your path assail,
God will take care of you. [Refrain]

All you may need he will provide,
God will take care of you;
Nothing you ask will be denied,
God will take care of you. [Refrain]

No matter what may be the test,
God will take care of you;
Lean, weary one, upon his breast,
God will take care of you. [Refrain]
