

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.
I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.
So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a & "Welcome Home".*

On June 6, 1957 Susan Robinson entered the world with a light that shined to whomever she came in contact with. She was the first of three children born to the late Willie Lee and Lucille (Gayman) Robinson in Jersey City, NJ. She transitioned from earth to glory on December 11, 2019.

Susan was educated in the Jersey City Public School system at PS #15 and Henry Snyder High School. She then began her career in healthcare for about 10 years where she dedicated her life to helping people. She changed careers and worked in finance for the Fiduciary Trust Company for 26 years before returning to her passion of helping others.

Susan has been a member of Mt. Pisgah AME Church since childhood. She actively served as a Missionary, Nurse and Usher. In recent years she was a member of the Ministerial Staff and Prayer Warriors. She also assisted in the ministry of Feeding and Praying for Veterans and the Community as part of Sarah's Daughters. Susan was also studying to become an Evangelist. Her life's work has touched so many that it cannot be shared in these few paragraphs, but Susan was a loving daughter, wife, mother, grandmother, sister, friend, advocate, spiritual guide and angel and She will be missed tremendously.

Susan leaves to cherish her memory, her two sons, Gentry Robinson (Valencia) and Jerry Hallman (Rolonda), grandchildren, Gentry, Gavin, Gaetan, J'arri and Jalana. Brothers, Anthony (Lynn) and Stanley Robinson (Francis), Ronnie; nieces and nephews, Angela, Eric, Matthew, Stanley Jr., Rolondo, Dominic, Lorelai, Brooke, and Courtney along with a host of other extended family members and friends old and new.

In addition to her parents, Susan was predeceased by her brothers James and Wadood.
