Obituary

Denzel S. Caban affectionately known as “Denny” was born, reared and educated in Paterson, NJ. Denny learned Spanish and became fluent at an early age from his father and paternal grandmother. He was a graduate of Passaic County Technical Institute in Wayne, NJ and went on to attend and graduate from NJIT with a Bachelors degree in mechanical engineering and a minor in Business.

He was a former member of Rhema Apostolic Church in Bloomfield, NJ. Denzel actively used his degree in engineering and loved to work on high performance and RC cars. He would often fix appliances or anything he could put his hands on in order to “save a buck” (lol) to help out his “mom”. He was employed by Hertz Corporation as an Assistant Manager in Brooklyn, NY and thrived in the challenges of his position.

Denzel was preceded in death by his father, Hector and both maternal and paternal grandmothers. He leaves to cherish his memory and is survived by his mother Freddy, brothers Tory L. (Jennifer) Paterson, Hector A. (Amanda) and Hemory A. (Christina) both of California, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and dear friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

By David M. Romano

When tomorrow starts without me and I am not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me

I know how much you love me as much as I love you
And each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me please try to understand
That Jesus came and called my name and took me by the hand.

He said my place is ready in heaven far above
And that I have to leave behind all those I dearly love.

But as I turned to walk away a tear fell from my eye
For all my life I'd always thought it wasn't my time to die.

I had so much to live for and so much yet to do
It seems almost impossible that I was leaving you.

I thought of all the yesterdays the good ones and the bad
I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had.

If I could have stayed for just a little while

I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.

But then I fully realize that this could never be

For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.

And when I thought of worldly things that I'd miss come tomorrow

I thought of you and when I did my heart was filled with sorrow.

But when I walked through Heaven's gate and felt so much at home
As God looked down and smiled at me from his great golden throne.

He said This is eternity And all I've promised you

Today your life on earth is past but here it starts anew.

I promise no tomorrow but today will always last

And since each day's the same here there's no longing for the past.

So when tomorrow starts without me don't think we're far apart,

For every time you think of me I'm right here in your heart.
