Obituary

*An extraordinary soul that has left us too soon.
A soul with one of the kindest hearts imaginable.
A dear friend that will be forever missed.*

Alton A. Henry was born on March 26, 1960, to Carmel Fyffe and Devon Henry in Spring Garden, St. Thomas, Jamaica. His extended parental love included his dear aunt, Evelyn, and Mass Arnold, who both had huge parts to play in his upbringing over these fifty-nine short years. Alton's life transcended the good and bad times, the joyous and the sad, and the tears of joy.

From the hills of Spring Garden, Alton defeated many obstacles and crossed over many hurdles to pursue his life's passion: that of becoming a "Master of the Culinary Arts". This master chef would prepare and serve the very best of gourmet cuisines that was fit for royalty.

Vibrant, personable, pleasant, kindhearted and compassionate are just a few of his attributes worth mentioning. All who knew him will have a lifetime of fond memories to cushion the pain of such a great loss. May God grant peace and comfort to those who loved him dearly, especially his adopted son, Jermaine Fyffe; sisters, Clara Reid, Ionie Williams, Pamella Williams, Vivienne Williams, and Marline Smith; brothers, Owen Howe and Derrick Williams; also, his aunts, uncles, numerous nieces, nephews and countless other relatives and friends who shared in his life.

*As the kitchen becomes silent and darkened,
The pots and pans rattle no more,
The ingredients in the jar have all been emptied from his cupboard,
We will forever be nourished by his memories.*

The Epitaph of Man

“No man fully understands his moment nor his time in the sun; but when his day has come to an end; and his eyes shall see the rising of the sun no more; there and then you know that his life now has stood still; but yet can be measured by the days in which he conquered living.

(Mr. Alton A. Henry, 2004)
