Reflections of Life

Lottie Mae McKnight-Lassiter was born February 13, 1963.

She was born in Beaufort, South Carolina to her mother Hattie Mae Houston and father George McKnight.

Lottie relocated to Paterson, New Jersey at an early age. She attended the Paterson public school system. She worked diligently as a housekeeper during her work career. Later, she met her husband James Lassiter. They were married for 25 years.

It was Lottie's strength, love, and kind ways that touched so many hearts. Lottie loved her family. She will truly be missed.

She transitioned peacefully on Tuesday, December 17, 2019.

She is survived by her husband; James Lassiter, two daughters; Phyllis McKnight and LaQuil McKnight, two grandsons; Nathaniel A. Colon and Aden L. Hayes, her mother; Hattie Mae Houston, mother-in-law; Goldie Lassiter, her siblings; Harold Lawton, Doris Gibbs, Shirley McKnight, Willie McKnight, Leon Houston Jr., Yolanda Houston, and Tracey Wheeler, sister-in-law; Goldie Shepard, two godsons. She will also be remembered by her many loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and relatives that were dearest to her heart.

Endless Love

Our hearts are broken.
From endless memoirs of your loving soul.
An Earth Angel has flown away into
Heaven's pearly gates.
Carrying strength and admiration.
Your received with open arms.
Leaving behind sorrow
As you transcend to a new beginning.
Forever we'll hold onto your endless love
That you shared willingly.
It was unfiltered and true.
So, soar across the sky.
Your free and full of serenity.
God's given you the humble task.
To watch over your family.
Help guide the lost.
Mend broken hearts.
Rejoice over fulfilled dreams.
Just dance with the angels.
We know you'll be watching over your Love ones.
From your new home above.
Until we meet again
Beautiful.
Endless is our love

-Phyllis McKnight
