Obituary

Ann Elizabeth Wilson was born on May 8, 1923 in Teachey, North Carolina to Katie and Solomon Highsmith.

She was raised and worked on her parents' farm with her two brothers and two sisters. There she developed the strength of character with a southern Christian upbringing.

With the guidance of her parents she matured and in her early twenties moved to New York City. It was in New York where she met and married Willie Wilson, who also was from North Carolina. Together they raised five children and she became a loving housewife and mother.

She enjoyed cooking and giving helpful cooking advise to her children. One of her favorite hobbies was sewing and making clothes as gifts. She loved traveling with her friends and attending various social events.

Her mild personality, warm smile and sincere greeting gained her many admirers among her neighbors.

She was extremely proud to see four of her five children go on to attend and graduate from college.

Ann was called home on December 17, 2019. She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughters, Diane and Sheila; sons, Vincent and James; grandchildren, Carl Jr., Rashawn, and Cherie; numerous great grandchildren; and a host of friends and relatives.

You Live Always

*It's true we bring nothing into this world ,and nothing we take when we pass. So the time in between we must use carefully, for only the memories will last. We hurt because you left us, we cry because you're gone; with sorrow we must say goodbye. But your memory lives on. Because of what you mean to us the loneliness will always remain.
But because of all the love you gave,
in our hearts you'll live always.*

kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
