Obituary

*To everything there's a season and a time.
To every purpose under the heaven;
Ecclesiastes 3:1*

A time to be born:

Mr. Joseph W. Giles was born to the late Wallace and Catherine Taylor of Montclair, New Jersey on February 19, 1935.

A time to seed:

The seeds of his life were planted in Montclair, New Jersey where he lived with his parents, and attended school there. He then went on to join the United States Air Force and completed a tour with an honorable charge.

A time to love:

Once Mr. Joseph W. Giles had come to be a man, he found himself smitten by the beauty and character of one young lady in the same area. He then left his mother and father to cleave unto Leathe Duncan as his soul mate and they became one and from this union there are four children, Jacqueline, Josephine, Edward and Jeanine.

A time to build:

Mr. Joseph W. Giles began his work career at Rheingold beer company in Orange, New Jersey and then moved on to Anheuser Busch in Newark, New Jersey. From there, he retired after 30 years of service.

A time for Joy:

The fulfillment of retirement allowed him to enjoy his life with his wife, children, grand children and great grand children. He loved traveling to Aruba, attending many Super Bowl events in various states. He also had a love for the boat and car shows that took place in New York City. The horse races at the Meadowlands and making a stop at the Rutts Hut in Rutherford before calling it an evening.

A time to die:

The final call of God to come home was received very peacefully by him on Monday December 16, 2019 at St. Barnabus Hospital in Livingston, New Jersey. In addition to his parents he was also preceded in death by his wife of fifty years Leathe Tessie Giles.

A time of Peace:

The legacy of his season is left to his children, Jacqueline Giles; Josephine Giles; Edward Giles and Jeanine Giles; grandchildren, Jenecque Pringle, Jonel Giles-Peeden, Joseph Giles, Jestiny Giles; great grandchildren, JeVeon Pringle, Javon Giles, Jahmir Pringle, Janae Peeden and Jordyn Giles, along with other relatives and friends.

The family and friends of the beloved Joseph W. Giles find peace in knowing that his purpose under the heaven has been fulfilled.
