Obituary

Lorraine Palmer was born on February 10, 1943, to the late Wesley and Pauline Franklin in Newark, New Jersey. God called Lorraine to His heavenly home on Wednesday, December 18, 2019.

She attended Robert Treat Elementary School and Central High School in Newark, New Jersey.

Lorraine was a dedicated and hard worker. She started her career with Bell Atlantic in high school and retired in 1992.

Lorraine's family was most important to her. She was close to her mother, her sister Linda and her brother-in-law Donald. She loved spending time with them. She was a proud mother, as well as grandmother, who raised two sons, Frank and Rashaan, to be strong, responsible, and loving men. She nurtured and supported their talents as they excelled in school, sports, and music. As her sons started families of their own, her love extended to her daughters-in-law and grandchildren.

Lorraine and Bill loved to host gatherings for family and friends at their home. Her favorite pass time was going to the gym and getting manicures with Raniaah. She also enjoyed decorating, shopping, and had impeccable style.

Lorraine was a great friend and was always there to give advice and support. Those who knew her knew she was a no-nonsense person. If you were straight with her, you got nothing but love in return. She will be missed by many.

She is preceded in death by her husband: Frank Palmer Sr.; one granddaughter: Sanaa Joyce Palmer; her best friend: Margie Fleming.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory, her loving companion of 29 years: Ronald Joyner a.k.a. Bill of Newark, NJ; her sons: Frank Jr. (Kelli) of Brick, NJ; Rashaan (Felicia) of Fords, NJ; eight grandchildren: Nyasia, Raniaah, Raneesha, Malasia, Michael, Sarah, Gabriel, and Kennedy; one sister: Linda (Donald) of Warrenton, NC; one aunt: Bernice Thompson; one godson: Allan of Charlotte, NC; and a host of cousins, friends, and loved ones.
