Obituary

Moses L. Singletary Jr. was born on January 15, 1943 in Florence, South Carolina he was the youngest of four children born to the late Gussie Mae Shaw-Singletary and Moses L Singletary Sr. He was preceded in death by his parents, Gussie Mae and Moses Singletary Sr. and his three sisters, Eleanor, Nita, and Leonia.

Moses attended Lake City Elementary school and Carver High School where he started all four years on the varsity football team as a outstanding running back and full back and he also was a great dancer. After graduating high school, Moses known to many as (Mo) moved to Newark, NJ, where he met and married Mary Sanders Singletary, through this union four children were born Moses III, Tyrone, Frances and Shenna.

Moses was employed with the Newark Star Ledger for many years as well as the Newark Board of Education. Moses retired from the Newark Board of Education as a head custodian at the St. Ann Annex School in 2014. In 2014 Moses became one of the Founding Members of the Bible Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Tyrone L. Singletary his son. Moses enjoyed watching the news and loved his sports, he was a big fan of the New York Giants and Mets.

Moses leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Mary Singletary; two sons, Moses L. Singletary III and Rev. Tyrone L. Singletary (Stacey); two daughters, Frances P. Singletary and Shenna M. Singletary; seven grandchildren, Wesley, Tyree, Briya, Myles, Bryson, Tamyra and Zariah; and one great granddaughter, Lyric Cooper; his loving aunt, Hesse Shaw; his favorite niece as he would call her, Brenda Williams; and his favorite nephew as he will call him, Keith Shaw; his extended family, The McCoy family and his church Family, Bible Missionary Baptist Church; his Sunday afternoon football crew, Deo, Veo, Jj, Shawnee, Jamondd, Jasonn, and Charles; other special friends, uncle, Eddie, Cindy McCoy, Deacon Jerry Robison, Claudia Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess, Maxine Hall, The late Deacon Conway Powell and his closest friend, Colette McCoy; and a host nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
