The Obituary

Willie B. Fudge was born on November 10, 1938 in (Colquitt) Decatur County, Georgia, to Easter Mae and Floydzel Leven.

Willie completed her education in the Georgia School system and later moved to Newark, New Jersey where she married her childhood sweetheart, Billie Joe Fudge, whom she loved dearly. They were married for 36 years until his demise due to illness in 1993.

From this union, their only child was born on November 27, 1958, on Thanksgiving Day.

Willie often told the story of how she was preparing Thanksgiving dinner and went into labor. Instead of turkey and stuffing, she got Sharon Denise Fudge.

Willie accepted Christ in the early sixties and was baptized. She was a faithful member of Little Friendship Baptist Church, where she sang in the choir, ushered on the usher board and work with the kitchen Auxiliary.

Willie was known for her gift of cooking and singing. She had a giving, compassionate and sharing spirit, always willing to feed anyone who wanted to eat. She loved her family, friends and church family, and went far beyond expectation to make others feel special and happy when in her presence.

‘Hats off’ to you, Willie, for all the love and wisdom that you poured into the lives of others. You were a strong, prayerful, phenomenal woman...indeed! Willie leaves to cherish her loving memories to her daughter, Sharon, two brothers, Reginald (Bonnie) Leven and Ronald (Susan) Leven, two nieces, Candice (Tyrone) Scott and Chalese Leven an aunt, Betty Atkins, and a host of other relatives and friends.
