Reflections of Life

Winnie Emma Ayers was born in Oconee, GA to Lucius Ayers and Pearl L. Gregory in the year of 1936. She was educated and graduated from the Union New Jersey school system. She then went on to pursue Nursing at the Essex County Vocational school where she graduated with her Nursing degree in the late 1970's. She retired from Nursing as a supervisor 10 years ago.

Winnie was baptized as a Jehovah's Witness on May 11, 1992, and loved talking about Gods Kingdom while witnessing door to door and in cart witnessing at Collingswood flea market on Saturdays. Her special friends included Rosa Spinks, Diane Stewart, Miss Della and Christine Taylor plus a host of others who were a very big help to her during more difficult times in her life.

Winnie had a heart of gold and was always there for anyone who needed her. She was a sweet soul and loved to entertain at her home with family and friends. She was known for her abounding generosity and she loved her family and her friends. She loved to laugh, dance and just have a good time with others. She was full of life.

Winnie was preceded in death by her husband Nathaniel McCurry aunt Jamesalee Walker, brothers Emmet and Ernest Curry, son Walter Bailey III, and granddaughter Ashley Sessoms.

She leaves to cherish her memories four aunts, Erma Horton, Bertha Lee Jackson, Alma-Jean Prosser, Annie Ruth Shuford and Emma D. Lawson. Sister Avaline Brisbon (Frank), three children Estelle Brown, Beth Bogar (Kevin), and Corrie Bailey. She also leaves five grandchildren Chad Bailey, Kirsten Brown, Salaam O'Neal, Philip Jackson, Aaliyah Bailey and Ethan Jenkins, and her sister cousin Tina Walker.

She leaves a host of great grandchildren, nieces and nephews that were very close to her and always a part of her full life.

She will be sorely missed by everyone that knew her and those that she crossed paths with in her life.

If you want to know an example of what a full life is like, look at Winnie. She was the embodiment of what the Christian life looks like. She labored long and strong, but was a chosen vessel to go with God in her last hour.

We miss you already Mommy, Gramma, Auntie!

Grandma, I will forever miss you. I know you're in a better place now and way more comfortable and I'm just happy to have to have been able to talk to you through all my ups and downs. I know you loved me and I sure love you. Philip

Gramma, hanging together every week was our thing so we could laugh about people and be silly. I'm going to miss you and can't believe my best friend is really gone. You told me everything. I love you. Kay

Grandma Winnie, thank you for always loving me and giving me the very best all the time. I love you. Chad
