Obituary

Anthony was born on September 26, 1964 to his loving and devoted mother, Dorothy. He was affectionately known to his family as “Big Will”. Anthony married Tracey Jones in 1991. From this union they were blessed with two daughters, Liana and Shaina. Anthony was also blessed to have Zakiyha as an addition to his family. Anthony was the grandfather to Vashawn Owens.

Anthony was a part of a loving family of two sisters, Tampata Finley (Shawn), Tracey Brown-Hargrove (David), and one brother, Dondi Brown. Anthony attended the Newark Public School System and received additional training with the United States Job Corps program and had a long career in private security.

Anthony had a deep love for music. He had an extensive knowledge of all types of music and was an avid sports fan. He loved Weequahic High School football and supported the team and tried to attend every game.

Anthony also leaves to cherish his memory: his longtime friend, Sunev Hurt. Along with his loving aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends. We mourn his passing and will always cherish our wonderful memories of him.

Eulogy.....Minister Kenneth Brown

*O death where is thy sting?
Where, grave, thy victory?
O keys of hell, why change Ye hands at Calvary?
Lo, on that hill God's wrath was placed,
Our sins erased, and death made nil.*

INTERMENT

Rosehill Cemetery
Linden, New Jersey

ANTHONY, We Miss You!

In your life you touched so many.

In your death many lives were changed.

You were an amazing loving man.

Without you here, our lives will never be the same.

We miss you more than words could ever say.

Even more with each and every passing day.

We just hold onto the memories that we made and

All the promises God so graciously gave.

Resting assured when Jesus comes there will be no more sadness, No more goodbyes, just life together eternally with Jesus by our side.

Acknowledgement

The Brown family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to us during our time of bereavement.

God bless you and keep you.
