Reflections of Life

Deborah was born on December 6, 1952 at Alvinton Memorial Hospital in Alvinton, Pennsylvania to Virginia Glenn. She was 67 years old. Early Tuesday morning, December 31, 2019, God stopped by the Regency Jewish Heritage Rehabilitation Center located in Somerset, NJ where He decided Deborah had finished her course. He gently reached down, cradled her in His arms as she entered into eternal rest.

Deborah was the oldest of six children, four brothers and one sister. She was raised and educated in the Perth Amboy, NJ school district for Elementary and Middle School. The family moved to Iselin, NJ where she attended and graduated from JFK High School in Iselin, NJ. After high school graduation, Deborah furthered her education and enrolled at Middlesex Community College where she earned an Associate Degree in Business. She never stopped thirsting for knowledge therefore she enrolled at King College in Union, NJ to continue her studies.

Debra was employed by the Jewish Family Services located in Somerset, NJ. Debra loved people and especially children. Her gift of gab made her a friend to everyone that crossed her path. Conversation was her forte.

Debra began her Christian walk at a young age. She was baptized and fellowshiped at Wicker Memorial Baptist Church in Cliffwood, NJ.

Debra was predeceased by her brother Alvie Glenn, grandmother, Irene Watson-Parker and grandfather, William Watson, brother-in-law, Andy Valez.

She leaves to cherish her memory: one son Trupre Glenn Somerset, NJ; mother, Virginia L. Glenn Iselin, NJ; four brothers: Dwight E. Glenn (Kathryn) Woodbridge, NJ, Horace C. Glenn (Marie) Rahway, NJ; Samuel E. Glenn (Sharon) Piscataway, NJ; two sisters: Zoramae I. Glenn-Valez, Maple Shade, NJ; Sakinah Glenn, Iselin, NJ; three aunts: Laura Wilson Baltimore MD, Garie Taylor Alexandria, VA.; and two special friends: Nancy Malik and Sandra Page; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

*Lovingly submitted,

“I’m Free”

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

*Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
