Reflections of Life

William D. A.K.A. Salaam Mangum was born to the late Daisy L. Rogers and George Mangum. He was born on April 25, 1967 in Newark, New Jersey.

William attended Central High School in Newark, New Jersey from which he graduated in 1983. He later went on to attend RAPT and studied Criminal Justice and Chemical Dependency.

William was employed at Gateway Foundation Corrections Inc. as a Substance Abuse Counselor. He was also employed as a Sr. Counselor at Correctional Medical Service and lastly he was a Medical Transportation Driver at Adamo Medical Service.

William met Victoria Thomas in 1998. They had a baby girl they named Shamara R. Mangum in October of 1999. William and Victoria dated for thirteen years before he made Victoria his wife. William and Victoria who had known each other for twenty years was married on April 20, 2012. They shared seven years together as husband and wife.

William leaves to cherish precious memories: his wife, Victoria Thomas-Mangum; four children, Ieisha Williams, Jituan Garnett, Salaam Mangum, Shamara Mangum; two step-children, Essence Thomas, Taheem Robinson; three siblings, one brother, Jamani Hassan Ford; two sisters, Natasha Rogers and Nina Rogers; his two dear friends, Kwa and Brooklyn; four grandchildren; and a host of family and friends.

William will truly be missed by many.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
