Obituary

The life of Thomas Moore began on October 12, 1951 when he was born to the late Thomas and Maddie Moore Ashley in Clinton, North Carolina. When he graduated from High School, he pursued a career as a truck driver that lasted for more than thirty years. During that time, he also served in the United States Army. Proverbs 18:22 says “He who findeth a wife findeth a good thing and obtaineth favor of the Lord.” On June 19, 1976, he married his soul mate Virginia Dickerson. They have been married for 43 years and had eight children.

Thomas had a servant’s heart. The bible says in Matthew 25:40 (NIV) “The King will reply, truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these, brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me”. He spent most of his time serving the community by bringing food to the elderly and taking them shopping or running errands for them. He loved working within the community and being available to all those that were in need. His heart was so big that even on vacation, he would help people whether in their yard or garage.

Thomas had an old soul. If anyone ever had driven with him, on the radio you would hear Johnny Taylor, Al Green, Sam Cook, Marvin Gay, Rolls Royce and plenty of juke joint/hole in the wall music.

Thomas leaves to cherish him in fond memories, his wife Virginia Moore, children: Regina Y. Rhodes (Husband: Harry Rhodes), Larry Jackson (Wife: Jessica Jackson), Patricia A. Jarmon, Anthony Dickerson, Fernando Moore, Maurice D. Moore (Wife: Marilyn Moore), Kentora Moore (Deceased) and Derrick T. Moore; brothers: George Ashley, Larry Ashley (Deceased), sisters: Betty Ruth Graham (Deceased) Debra Ann Howard (Deceased); in-laws: Langford Dickerson and Melissa McCoy; a plethora of grandchildren: 28 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

We will be remised if we did not mention the significant others of Thomas’ sons, who have been a part of our family for many years: Jillean Adorno, Melissa Laviena, and Fabianne Vera.
