Reflections of Life

Wanda Carol Davis (Gustafson), born February 18, 1961 to the late Joseph L. Davis and the late Carolyn E. Peel transitioned on Wednesday, January 15, 2020.

Wanda was employed by Newark police department as a crossing guard until she gained her wings. Wanda took her job very seriously. You can hear her yelling at the cars “Hey Back IT Up! Get out my intersection! And ..Hurry Up! Pay Attention!

She was loved and respected by many. She leaves to cherish her memories: brothers, Joseph L. Davis and James E. Davis; daughter, Ayesha L. Davis; son, Hassan Davis; granddaughters, Iyona, Kaniya Gaddie, Nyiazha Davis; great grandchildren, I'ziriyah, N'zareyah Battle, Zamiyne, Zamyah Thompson; along with her sisters-in-law, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
