Obituary

Anthony Charles McPhaul was born to Barbra McPhaul and Charles (Juicy) Herington on March 16, 1956 in Durham North Carolina. Charles was a loving father, husband, uncle and friend to everyone.

Kwame: Great memories, bonding with my father practicing our favorite wrestling move from our favorite WWE wrestler action pack Friday night! Priceless.

Shanikwa: My dad! My dad showed me what it was to be treated like a queen. “Never settle for less”, he always told me. He always had my back. I'm the strong person I am today because of my father.

Toure: My father was a hard working man. He was a loving husband, son and grandfather. The things that used to bother me are the things I now miss most. We all love you dearly, love Jay.

Michelle: Charles, my best beloved, we met on 10/26/1971 and remained together ever since. Our union produced three children. Charles was a loving, kind, caring and thoughtful man with a great sense of humor. Remember when we were alone and I was singing my song “For nobody but you”. I love you with all my heart. Chelle.

You gave no one a last farewell nor even a goodbye, you were gone before we knew it and only God knows why.

A million times I will miss you
A million times I will cry
If love alone could have saved you
You would never have died
In life we loved you dearly
In death, we love you still

In our hearts you hold a place only a brother could fill
Of all bad things I have endured, the saddest is saying
Farwell.

Love, your mother and sister.

Charles is survived by his wife of 41 years Michelle Rhymer, mother Barbra, sister Kandi, brothers Wayne and Lamont and his three children Kwame, Toure and Shanikwa. As a patriot of his family he leaves a legacy of eight grandchildren, nieces, nephew, and other extended family.

Dad we love and miss you so much. The void in our hearts will never be filled and the pain will never go away. From your wife, sons and daughter. Rest easy (che che colay).
