Obituary

Judith Augusta Johnson was born on February 18, 1947. She was born and raised in Trinidad and Tobago by her now passed mother and father, Emelda Johnson and John Johnson. Her surviving siblings are: Janet Johnson, Dianne Johnson, Ken Johnson, Peter Johnson, Jennifer Johnson, Pat Johnson, and Trevor Johnson. Her eldest brother, Arden Johnson preceded her in death.

In the late 60s, she came to America and settled in Brooklyn, New York, in which she called her home. On October 11th, 1973, she gave birth to her son, Patrick P. Pitts with her then husband Moses Pitts; and on April 20th, 2000, she became a grandmother to Kaori Pitts.

Judith was a hardworking woman who did all she could for her family and always put family first. She put smiles on people's faces and danced like there was no tomorrow. She loved to travel and take pictures to document the moments she most enjoyed in life.

She leaves behind many nieces, nephews, cousins and other dear family and friends who she knew loved her dearly and she still touches people's hearts with her love, kindness, and generosity. She will be greatly missed.
