Acknowledgement

I would like to thank you all for joining us today, both family and friends. Betty would be proud of the respect you've shown her and be honored by your presence. So that today we may acknowledge and share both our joy in the gift that her life was to us, and the pain that her passing brings, in sharing the joy and the pain together today, may we lessen the pain and remember more clearly the joy.

Obituary

Betty Bee Silver was born on January 13, 1946, in Brooklyn, NY, to the late Wilson Silver and Nannie Ricks.

Betty was raised in Brooklyn at the Marcy and Brevoort Housing Projects. She was educated in the NYC public school system: P.S. 21, P.S. 35, and Franklin K. Lane high school.

Betty was employed as a Counterperson/Cashier at the worlds fair in Queens, NY, Schraffts in NYC, and Food Service Plus, Inc. at general Electric Co. in NYC. She would then go on to complete a counseling program for women in self-help and a course for home health aide at the metro training career center in Brooklyn. She then worked as a home care worker for Cabrini Care at Home, Inc., NYC, Revival Home Health Care Inc., Brooklyn, NY, and New York Health Providers, NYC.

Betty met and married Charles Edward Barnhart in 1981. From that union was born betty's third son, Charles Vahram Barnhart.

Betty was a great cook. She loved the holidays, Christmas and Thanksgiving. She loved to cook Thanksgiving dinner. She cooked her last Thanksgiving dinner in 2018. She loved to shop and buy beautiful clothes and shoes.

Betty was a vibrant soul, full of joy, love and life. She went on several trips throughout her lifetime: Hawaii, Bahamas, Arizona, Las Vegas. She loved going to the movies, shows and the casino. She was known for her parties at 97 Brooklyn Avenue apt 6D. She loved spending time with her one and only grandson, little Charles, who she affectionately called, "My little Boobie".

Betty made a confession of faith in Jesus Christ as her lord and savior on July 28, 1996 at the Christian Life Centre in Brooklyn, NY.

Betty departed this life on January 19, 2020 after a brief stay at the NY congregational nursing center. Her siblings, Jerry, Richard, Geraldine, Susie, and Marjorie; step-brother Eston Thornton; and step mother, Pearl Lewis preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory; her three sons, Damon, Terrell, and Charles; her one and only grandson, little Charles; step-sister, Sherry Parker-Davis, Hurlene Thornton, Sharon Thornton; cousin, Carl Davis, and a host of nieces and nephews.
