Obituary

Onetha Brown was born June 7th, 1955 in Calhoun, South Carolina to parents Elether and Gilbert Brown. At the age of 2, her family relocated to NYC.

While growing up in NY Onetha had a liking to dancing & dressing up stylish. She was given her nickname “Peaches” because of her sweet genuine personality and the deep dimples that became revealed with her beautiful smile that would brighten anyone's day.

Onetha was educated in the NYC Public School System, she completed a certification for becoming a switchboard operator and had great secretary skills. She worked as a community worker and pursued evangelism at the tender age of 21.

Onetha became a single mother to a beautiful daughter named Serena. She along with her mother's help raised a strong independent woman. She was very proud of her family and became a grandmother to her 3 beautiful grandchildren, which she also helped raise, loved and adored as if they were her own. She was a devoted and loving mother, grandmother, and sister. Onetha was known for her feisty, loving yet good sense of humor.

She joined the Free Mission Church where her pastor was Walter Dunnlap. She was a faithful parishioner until she became too ill to attend regularly. She remained in contact with her pastor until his passing. Onetha always had kind words, prayers or scriptures for others. Her favorite bible quote was Mathew 8:20, “Foxes have dens and birds have nests, but the son of man has no place to lay his head.” She was greatly loved and will be greatly missed.

Onetha is survived by her only daughter Serena, her three grandchildren; Andrew 25 years old, Shania 22 years old, and Jaylen 14 years old, her four siblings; Daniel, William, Georgia & Ernest; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones:
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this Everlasting Light.
All the pain and grief are over!
Every restless yearning past;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely Home in Heaven at last.
Dear one, do not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust Our Father's Will.
When your work is completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh! the rapture of that meeting!
Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express their deepest and most sincere thanks to all who shared with them in this time of sorrow.
May God bless and keep you in a most gracious way.
