Obituary

Ingrid (Peachie) G. Stroman was born on May 2, 1946 to the late Lois Griffin and Kelly Fant in Brooklyn, New York.

She attended public schools and Thomas Jefferson High School, where she met and married the late Sydney Stroman. Their union produced four children. Ingrid worked as a school crossing guard for the Department of Education City of New York for 32 years until her retirement on August 24, 2012.

In her spare time she liked to listen to WBLS. She also enjoyed talking and hanging out with her friends. Most importantly taking care of her children and grandchildren. She was also involved in community events during the earlier years.

On January 29, 2020, Ingrid transitioned into heaven. She is predeceased by her husband Sydney Stroman and daughter Brook Stroman and grandson Kyle J. Stroman (KJ), two brothers and one sister.

Ingrid leaves to mourn in her memory, sons Sydney (Iris) Lanoka Harbor, N.J. Vance, Kyle NY, NY. One brother Kelly Atkins, one sister in law Marisa Stroman NY, NY. Nine grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
