Obituary

Castina passed peacefully from this life the afternoon of January 30th after a gradual decline in health. She was surrounded and supported by her loving family during the last days of her life. Castina was born in L'Asile, Haiti on May 8th 1949 to Melicia Charlotin and Castin Laborde, but has been residing in the state of New Jersey. In 2005 Castina and her husband Roland Coriolan retired in beautiful Lakeland, FL where she lived the remainder of her life.

She was a devoted and selfless mother, wife, sister, and friend. Her gentleness was her strength. A beautiful spirit with goodness inside that shines through on the outside. Castina touched many people with her generosity and kindness. She found solace in her passion for cooking which she absolutely loved. Castina dedicated her life and time to sow into her family, one of the many attributes that were elegantly displayed. Most importantly she was a loving mom and wife who showed great compassion.

Castina leaves to cherish her memories by her loving husband Roland Coriolan, her daughters, Natacha and husband Rock Gourdet, Chantal Princeton, Falange Napoleon and family, Maranatha and family, and ten grandchildren. Her Nieces Josseline and family, Herline Jeanty and Henose Valcin. Castina is also survived by her brothers Castor Laborde and family, Micaes Laborde and family, her sister Valancia Valcin and family.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
