Obituary

Naomi (Niecy) Moore was daughter of the late Williams T. and Doris Moore. She was born on October 11, 1955 in Onslow County, North Carolina.

Niecy attended the New York City School system, and she graduated from Canarsie High School in 1972.

As a young child Niecy worshiped at Overcoming Church of God in Christ and Pilgrim Cathedral Baptist Church. Niecy was saved and received the Holy Spirit at the age of 13. Niecy sang with the Youth Choir and became a good Youth leader.

Niecy enrolled at a trade school for bookkeeping and eventually acquired a job working in that field. Niecy was also employed as a customer sales representative. As a young lady she loved to dance and sing, she joined a trio group called the Brooklyn Supremes.

One of Niecy's joys was to spend time with her family and friends.

Niecy departed this life on Sunday, February 2, 2020 at 2:45 am.

Niecy's life will be forever cherished by: her son, Tremain Moore; daughter, Tameka King and son-in-law, Colis King; grandchildren, Donte Cullins, Da-Meek Cullins and Jaheem King; great grandchildren, Autumm James and Amari Dash Cullins; sister, Sheila Cratic and brother-in-law, Joseph Cratic; aunts, Carolyn Freeman (Eddie Freeman) and Delores Nelson (Larry Nelson); a dedicated friend she cherished as a sister, Cathy Coleman; Niecy also had a group of friends she also cherished, Karen Benjamin, Curly Cange, Datwan Cullins, Savion Pinckney and Nina Simone Chambers.

Miss Me But, Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites
in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love
that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey
that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
