Obituary

Cellophine Ancrum was born in Enfield, North Carolina to the late Jim Lyons and the late Mae Frances Williams.

She went to Imborden High School. She was married to the late Thomas Ancrum Jr. From this union, they had two children, Benita F. Ancrum and Keith M. Ancrum.

She was a joy to be around and was always willing to help. She worked as a Mental Hygiene Therapy Aide for Brooklyn Developmental Services.

She had three siblings who preceded her in death, sisters, Josephine Whitaker of Enfield, North Carolina and Mae Dorothy Ifill of New York and brother, Chester Williams of Goldsboro, North Carolina.

She leaves to faithfully cherish her memory her beloved daughter, Benita; her beloved son, Keith; her grandsons, Malcom X. Ford and Gabriel M. Ancrum; her granddaughter, Nakia E. Ford. She painfully leaves her sister Charlotte Ott of Brooklyn, New York who has made her laugh and stay strong for so many years. And a host of nieces, nephews and friends to cherish.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

*I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing
times and bright and sunny days.*

*I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that
I leave when life is done.*

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express their deepest and most sincere thanks to all who shared with them in this time of sorrow.

May God bless and keep you in a most gracious way.
