Obituary

Deneise Michelle Peak was born in Washington, D.C. on July 18, 1955. She was the eldest child and only daughter of Odessa Burley and Joe Louis Fogle Sr. Deneise was affectionately known to many as “Neisy” or “Peach”. She attended Arts High School in Newark, NJ. Later she went on to receive an Associate’s Degree from the Fashion Institute of New York where she became a talented, fashion illustrator. Her spirit was sweet, kind, and always filled with joy. Neisy loved music and she enjoyed dancing her heart out. Neisy lived her life with zest and an affectionate disposition towards all. She embraced each and every day with that same spirit.

Neisy loved the Lord and she was not afraid to show it. She attended worship whenever possible. Deneise was an avid reader of the Bible. She was able to recite scripture from each book of the Old and New Testaments. When Neisy fell ill she still proclaimed her love for Christ. Even though Neisy struggled with her health, she never wavered in her belief and devotion.

Deneise is preceded in death by her brothers, Daniel Allen Fogle and Limon Lance Freeman Jr., and her lifelong companion, Alfonso Lewis Sr. Neisy leaves to cherish her precious memories her husband Harrison Peak, two daughters, Kyna Mitchell (Corwin) and Zyna Fogle, two sons, Alfonso Peak and Anane Peak, eleven grandchildren; Miya Bell, Kevin Bell, Yasmine Barrett, Noel Greene, Zaire Fogle, Tambrieah Fogle, Yasim Fogle, Kiorah Suber, Zy’riyah Suber, Alayjah Peak, Jeremiah Peak, and Adrian Peak, three great grands; Donyae Jones, Tru Robinson, and Sarai Reid, her two brothers, Joe Louis Fogle Jr., and Kamau Kaboni, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins other relatives and friends.

She will be truly missed.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace be thine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
