Dear Grandma

*For just one more moment I wish I could hear you say my name.
Since life as we know it hasn't given me that choice, I'll mourn and rejoice your life but not in vain. I'll look at pictures and remember the memories we've had and smile because of them and try not to be so sad.*

If roses grow in Heaven, I'll ask God to pick some, lay them in your arms and tell you they're from me and I love you for all eternity. Remembering you will be easy and missing you will be hard. I'll do it everyday until we meet again one fine sunny day.

Love our 1st born granddaughter: Ona Ward

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*

Ecclesiastes: 3:1-4

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

Revelations 21:14

And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.
