Obituary

Her story... Her life... Her love.... Her Legacy. "I have fought the good fight... I have kept the faith.... I have finished the race".

Lucille Jones Stover affectionately known as Nana was born on May 20th, 1924 to the late Susie Williams and Eddy Marshall.

Lucille was educated in the Newark school system and attended Arts High School. She married London Jones, and out of that union a son was born, Curtis Jones Sr. She later met and married the late Henry Stover.

Lucille was a faithful member of Wells Cathedral Church of God in Christ. Later she moved her membership to the Newark Gospel Tabernacle under the leadership of Rev. Herb Green and Rev. Robert Johnson, where she served faithfully until her health began to fail. One of her favorite quotes was "oh God".

She loved helping people. Nana had a love for cooking and sewing, going shopping, clipping coupons and talking to her sister Gladys about the love of the Lord.

Lucille leaves to cherish her loving son Curtis Jones Sr. of Newark New Jersey; three sisters Gladys Hall, Gloria Williams and Shirley Williams; one granddaughter Lisa Michelle Elliott; four grandsons, Xavier Lyles, Jovan Powell, Curtis Jones Jr. and Cornell Jones. She also leaves 6 great grands and 2 great great grands a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.

My Mother

My mother is a woman like no other. She gave me life, nurtured me, taught me, dressed me, fought for me, held me, shouted at me, kissed me, but most importantly loved me unconditionally.

There are not enough words I can say to describe just how important my mother was to me, and what a powerful influence she continues to be..

Mother, I Love You.

A vertical collage of 18 photographs. The top photo shows two men in white outfits, one kneeling and one standing. Below are several smaller photos of individuals and groups in various settings, including indoor rooms and outdoor spaces. The photos capture different moments and people, likely from the same community or family.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Serenity Prayer

GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time;

Enjoying one moment at a time;

Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.

Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that

He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will;

That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

Amen
