Reflections of Life

Eutha Mae Williams was born June 10, 1940 in Maxton, NC to the late Calvin and Blanche (Briggs) McRae. She was a graduate of J.H. Hayswood High School in Lumberton, NC and attended St. Augustine's College in Raleigh, NC.

At an early age, she joined the Mount Olive Methodist Church of Lumberton and began the journey of fighting the good fight of faith. Her fight ended, when she was called home on February 7, 2020 at Duke Hospital in Raleigh, NC.

In the 60s she moved to New York City, NY and later in 1972 she relocated to Paterson, NJ where she resided until her retirement in December, 2011 as a Central Sterile Manager. Afterwards, she permanently relocated to the state of Virginia where she spent her last days enjoying what she loved most: life and family.

She leaves to mourn her passing, four sons: Darryl (Sheree) McRae of Warrenton, VA, Ricky McRae of Woodbridge, VA, Terrence (Ann) McRae of Raleigh, NC and Rodney (Diane) Felder of Paterson, NJ, thirteen grandchildren, seventeen great grandchildren and a host of other family and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband, John Williams, sister, Beatrice McRae and two brothers, Calvin Jr., and Johnny McRae.

As she lays to rest, we will forever memorialize her in our hearts.

MOM

Crying, pain, heartaches and heartbreaks are no longer a concern.

*You are in a place far better than any of us could ever imagine.
There is no more suffering and even though you will be greatly missed, we know your assignment is complete.*

We will cherish the memories you made with us and never forget the morals you instilled.

Rest now mom for your work is done.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love
that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey
that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are
lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
