

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Obituary

Marlene Falconer was born October 10, 1937 to the late John Cole and Vera Cole in Cairn Curran (Westmoreland) Jamaica. She attended Cairn Curran All Age school. In the 1960's she migrated to Brooklyn, NY where she met her late husband, Lloyd "Bobsie" Falconer.

Marlene worked as a home health aide for many years.

Marlene was a kind hearted individual that loved her family very much. She loved to spend time with her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. One memory that she said to her great granddaughter Sanaya was "If it wasn't for me all of you would not be here" that memory will always be stuck with her. Marlene's most precious moments were spending time with her family. Especially the family events that her daughter Sharon had from time to time. Her first daughter, Ivy Thompson, was always by her mother's side for the last year of her life with the help of other family members. She became the caretaker for her mother. My grandmother was very appreciative of all the help and visits from family members and friends. She was also very mindful of our outside life and would tell her not to stay too late. That is the kind and selfless heart that she had.

Marlene transitioned to the Lord on the morning of February 6, 2020 when God allowed her to sleep peacefully. Her fight to continue to live on earth was not granted. For she had been granted her wish to be in the presence of her ancestors, her late husband and her late daughter Panchita Buchanan and Winston Falconer. This transition has given her family immense joy as she at peace.

Marlene Falconer's life will be remembered by her daughters: Ivy Thompson, Panchita Buchana (deceased) and Sharon Wynter of Brooklyn, NY: her sons, Sonny and Winston Falconer (deceased): Her sisters: Jean Ebanks, Monica Wiggins, Mazie Cole, Cynthia Cole, Linda Beswick and Margaret Brooks (deceased): Her brothers, Frederick "Roy" Cole, Roland Cole, Courtney Cole, Calvin Cole, Derrick Cole, Zithroy Cole (deceased), Rupert Cole (deceased) Cyril "Tony World" Cole (deceased). Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren as well as other relatives and friends.
