Obituary

“In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you.

I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.”

John 14:2-3

In the quiet hours of the morning on Sunday, February 16, 2020, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ opened the door of Heaven for our loved one Mr. Hampton Scott Jr. to welcome him to his eternal home.

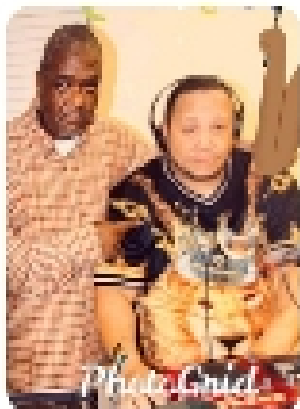

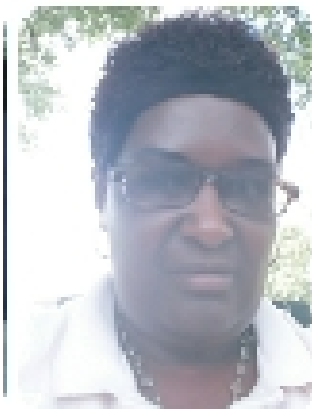

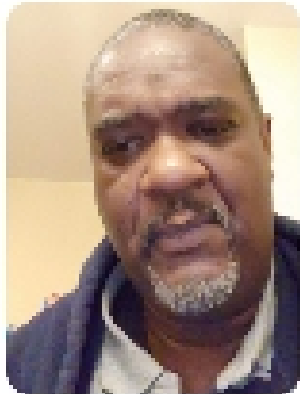

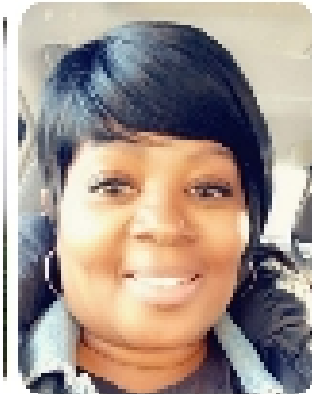

Salik or Junior as most of his family and friends called him, was born to Hampton Scott Sr. and Jessie Mae Scott on June 19, 1964 in East Orange, NJ. He was preceded in death by his parents, Hampton Sr. and Jessie Mae Scott; and his son, Brandon Bethea.

He received his education from Weequahic High School in Newark, NJ and had a love for music his entire life. Salik was an awesome Disc Jockey and was very well-known throughout the city of Newark and surrounding areas.

He was a forklift operator at UTI in Edison, NJ for 15 years.

Salik leaves to cherish his memory: two sisters, Pamela Scott of Irvington, NJ, and Katherine “Boobie” Scott of Newark, NJ; two nephews, Omar and Tawuan Scott of the home, and two nieces, Da’Sha Scott of Orange, NJ and Tamera Tisdale of the home; one uncle, John O. Freeman, Sr. of Whiteville, NC; three aunts, Ruth Williams of Trenton, NJ, Ethel Moyd of Jersey City, NJ, and Larcene Brown of Whiteville, NC. He was the Godfather of Juwan Harris and Jasmine Bethea, special friends; Ms. Hope Bethea, mother of Brandon and Jasmine; Hakeem Harris, father of his Godson; Scott Campbell, T. Smooth and Isaiah (Ike) Smith; Ms. Joyce Bailey and children whom he was very fond of; special cousin, Ann Brown and many cousins, other relatives and friends too numerous to name.

God Saw You

God saw you getting weary, so he did what he know best, He came and stood beside you, and whispered come and rest. You bid no one a last farewell, not even said good-bye, You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why. When God called you to come and rest, you didn't leave us alone, Memories of you stayed with us, the day God took you home.
