Obituary

Isma Gertrude (Hedley) Adamson was born on July 26, 1939 in St. Joseph, Barbados to the late Cosmo and Amanda Hedley. Isma was the sixth child out of nine. She was educated also in Barbados.

She migrated to New York City in the early 1960's. Isma soon met the love of her life, the late Alvin Adamson. To that union was born four children.

Isma was a hard and dedicated worker. She didn't believe in sitting around being idle. Isma was able to grace several dwellings in New York City. She found great love and friendship at her final dwellings on 117th Street. She could often be found sitting out front in the neighborhood mingling with family and friends. Isma loved the neighborhood kids as well as her associates. She loved a good joke as well as having a good time. When she wasn't lounging in the neighborhood she could often be found going about her daily tasks.

Isma had a strong taste for shopping, dressing up and visiting restaurants. She was a family woman who believed in taking care of her family and home first. Her husband Alvin preceded her in death, during the month of December 1987. Isma immediately picked up the mantle and continued to provide for the family and the home.

During the month of August 2019, Isma health began to fail. Early in the morning on February 10, 2020, Isma answered the Savior's call, gave up the fight, took the Master by His hand and bid this world goodbye.

In departing this life Isma leaves to cherish her memories: four children, Dackery Adamson, Grantley (Ivy) Adamson, Caroline Adamson and Yvonne Adamson; two sisters, Eudeen Harten and Gerleen Hedley; three brothers, Steven (Margie) Hedley,

David (Angela) Hedley and Eversley (Evantley) Hedley; eight grandsons; five granddaughters; a host of great grands, nieces and nephews; and a host of other family and friends.

*We don't know why this day have come so soon when it did Taking our precious Isma and leaving such a void
Some will say it's fate
Others will say it was her time
Despite our pain and grief
Not to mention the pain we feel
We boldly proclaim,
Jesus is our Rock*

*And the Lord God we serve is real
Thank you God for comfort and peace
Even though we do not understand
And thank you for holding our dear mother
In the safety of your hands*
