Reflections of Life

Ervin Green was born on March 25, 1947 to the late James Green and Sadie Green in Macon, North Carolina.

He was educated in the Warren County Public Schools.

Ervin was employed by Kessler Industries for forty years. He was an avid walker and also a great handy man, he could fix appliances without written instructions. Ervin had such a infectious smile that lit up any room and he doted on his family.

Ervin was preceded in death by his parents, James Green, Sr., Sadie Green, three brothers, Will Green, James Green, Jr. and Larry Green.

Ervin leaves to cherish fond memories: five brothers, Calvin (Patsy), Jurell (Ann), Kenneth (Barbara), Alfonso (Sadie) and Walter (Linda); two sisters, Clara Green and Constance Mayo; his long time companion, Eula White; and a host of nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, friends and neighbors.

*A Precious one from us is gone
A Voice we Loved is still
A place is vacant in our hearts
That can never be filled.*

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
