Reflections of Life

Robert S. Draper was born to the late union of Annie Mae Draper & James William Draper in Martinsville, VA. He moved to New Jersey to continue his dream as a Mechanic.

Robert Draper known as “Bob” by friends and “Jack/Dada” by his grandkids, was an exceptional man, who loved selflessly without hesitation. He gave countlessly, just a complete heart of gold. Robert also took to his dream which came true. While doing so he developed a love for (Tow Trucking) along with his best friend Mr. Ace. While pursuing his passion, he met the love of his life. The two went on to live a beautiful fulfilling life together. His favorite line used was “if you’re scared get in my back pocket.” To know Robert or share any encounter with him, you would laugh hard and love him harder.

Robert Draper departed his life on February 14th, 2020. He was preceded in death by his mom Annie Mae Draper, his father James William Draper, his brother Harry Lee Draper and step son Bernard Williams.

He leaves to cherish his memory: Special lady friend, Claudia Williams of New Jersey, three step children, Robert Williams, Annette Thomas and Denise Williams all of New Jersey; grandchildren: Sanayah Williams (boo), Khalil Williams, Nasir Williams, Amira Williams, Aliyyah Brown, De’shawn Williams, Hadith Williams, Claudia Williams (Big shake), Bestie Claudette Williams (lil shake), and Jazon Williams; great grandchildren: Khani Williams, Naomi Williams, Zyon McBride, Aziz Bell, Aniyah Brown, Zemane Brown, and Nevah Williams.
