Obituary

The late Richard Stackhouse, Sr. and Barbara Stackhouse, were joined in holy matrimony wedded at Saint Ambrose Church Brooklyn, New York. Richard, Jr. was the oldest of their four children born out of this union. He attended and graduated from P.S. 305, J.H.S. 258 and Murray Bergtraum High School of Business located here in New York.

Richard was a loving, fun, caring and a free hearted person. He enjoyed the company of family, close friends and touching the hearts of those he encountered. He had a flare for excitement and a zest for life, which many never fully understood. He had the ability to make people laugh out loud (LOL!). Richard's life was marked by his greatest ability which was to love unconditionally. He seized every moment to enjoy life and to "live his best life."

On February 1, 2020, Richard, Jr. was hospitalized at Woodhull Hospital. Due to needing a higher level of care he was transferred to Bellevue Hospital, New York, New York. Staff at the hospital cared and supported the family during this most difficult time. He spent his last days surrounded by family, friends and those who love him best. Richard battled a short-term illness which led to his untimely death.

He is survived by his mother Barbara Stackhouse, sister's Tracey Stackhouse, Iesha Stackhouse and Ruby Stackhouse.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his children: Phoenicia Stackhouse and Jasmine Lillian Stackhouse. Uncle Charles Griffin and Aunt Nancy Griffin. Several nieces and nephews: Tyson Roscoe Stackhouse, Nealetty Roscoe Stackhouse, Zaire Hughes, Isaiah Harris, Starnazsa Harris, Rayakee Harris, Abianna Sheffield and Mia Sheffield.

Great nieces and nephews: Ja'Kaiya Harris and Isaiah Harris. Brother-in-law: William Sheffield, cousins and a countless number of friends.

Let Me Go

We've known lots of pleasure at times endured pain; we've lived in the sunshine and walked in the rain. But now we're separated and for a time apart, but I am not alone you're forever in my heart. Death always seems so sudden, and it is always sure, but what is often forgotten it is not without a cure. I'm walking now with someone, and I know He'll always stay, I know He's walking with you too, giving comfort every day. There may be times you miss me, I sort of hope you do, but smile when you think of me, for I'll be waiting for you. Now there are many things for you to do, and lots of ways to grow, get busy, be happy and live your life, miss me, but let me go.

Acknowledgement

The family expresses deep appreciation for all acts of kindness, words of sympathy, prayers and encouragement extended during their time of bereavement.

May God Bless You!
