

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.

Reflections of Life

Robert Earl Covington was born on August 22, 1974, in Paterson, NJ to the late Brenda Covington and George Horton.

Robert was a lifelong resident of Paterson and attended the Paterson Public School System. He was well known in the community for being a tough guy with a kind heart. Robert loved to cook and was extremely intelligent.

He could think quickly on his feet. Robert loved people and was supportive of those in need. He enjoyed laughing, telling jokes and watching the LA Lakers play basketball. Above all else, Robert kept it real. He did not hold back from telling you the truth.

Robert is preceded in death by his parents and maternal grandmother Betty Harris.

On Monday, March 9, 2020, Robert Earl Covington tragically departed this life.

He leaves to cherish precious memories, one son, Christopher Alston and grandson Christopher Jaden Alston, both of Richmond, Virginia; sisters: Francine Covington and Vanessa Covington of Harrisburg, PA; brothers: Michael Covington of Wilmington, NC and George Covington of Newton, NJ and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
