Obituary

Fay Hart-Denmark was born on December 10, 1967 in Toronto, Canada. She was the oldest of two children born to Daphnie Irwin. The family migrated to Brooklyn, New York and she attended New York City Public Schools. For over twenty years she worked as Pediatric Intensive Care Unit nurse and nurse manager at Colombia Presbyterian, UMNDJ, and Newark Beth Israel hospital (to name a few). During her tenure she developed a love of teaching and began her career as an adjunct professor at Dominican College's Weekend BSN program. Prior to her death she transitioned from the hospital floor to the classroom as a full-time professor and director the WBSN program at Dominican.

When she wasn't working, she was traveling, learning, and enjoying life. She was an avid cruiser who sailed to different countries at least three times a year. She also enjoyed concerts and good food. When an amazing artist was in town, she could often be seen attending his/her concert with friends and grabbing a bite to eat at a trendy restaurant just a short time later.

Fay was cheerful, loving, kind, and friendly. To know her was to be happy. When you met her, you walked in one way, however, when you left, you were better off. She was a nurturer, a true nurse at heart. She loved unconditionally—her husband, job, children, and sister.

It would be wrong to say that Fay lost her battle because she never stopped fighting. No matter how sick she was, she was always determined. When anyone else would have broken, she stayed strong. Through her, we know what resilience and perseverance truly look like. Just because she is no longer here, it doesn't mean she lost her fight.

Fay Hart went home to be with the Lord on March 14, 2020.

She leaves behind her husband: Daniel Denmark, one sister, Cheryl Hart, children: Anthony (TJ) and Chade, and a host of friends, neighbors, coworkers, and students.
