

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God laid for me
 I took his hand when I heard Him call
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day.
 To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I found that peace at the close of day.
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it up with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much.
 Good friends, good times,
 a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free!

Obituary

On Wednesday, March 18, 2020 Madeleine Justin Numa loving mother of five passed away in the loving arms of her children.

Madeleine was born October 12, 1950 to the late Joseph Justin Anorjuste and Marie Cina St. Hubert at General Hospital in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. She had four siblings Emmanuel Anorjuste, Jocelin Sam, Gisele Joseph and the late Edward Anorjuste.

Madeleine graduated high school where she then became a school teacher and great professor. In 1979 she then married the late and great Wilfrid Numa and raised five children, Ketty Boucicalut, Whangson Numa, Wickenson Numa, Esmeranda Presmy and Sadraac Numa. She leaves behind fourteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She had eight nieces and six nephews.

Anyone who knew Madeleine knows how much family, God, shopping and traveling meant to her. She was a strong hard working woman who never took no for an answer and was never afraid to speak her mind. Madeleine's memory will be held alive by her loved ones.
