

Gone Too Soon

We never thought that we would be saying goodbye
The tears cannot stop no matter how hard we try.

We regret the days when we did not talk at all
How we wished we had come home and called.

We know that time waits for no man
We pray that you are resting in God's hands.

You lived a good life and you lived it well
For only God and time alone will tell.

We wish that we could make up for the times we missed

We never thought that we would be going through this.

You are an angel now,
you have gained your wings

We cannot stand the pain this time brings.

We did not prepare ourselves for this outcome

There are a lot we wish we would have done.

For instance always saying we love you
Hugging and kissing you when our visits were through.

We can go on and on about regrets Michelle

We are not ready to say goodbye yet.

Obituary

Michelle Sumpter was born on March 12, 1987, in Harlem Hospital, New York, New York, to parents, Ricky Mack and Vanessa Sumpter. She departed this life on Monday, March 23, 2020.

Michelle attended New York City Public Schools and went on to graduate from Monroe College. She obtained an Associate's Degree in Nursing. This enabled her to demonstrate her genuine care and concern for people as a Nurse; and later while assisting families in need with Access-A-Ride. Eventually Michelle discovered a desire to serve people in a much different way, she became a Correction Officer. She served in this capacity until her passing.

Michelle will be remembered for her great love of family. She loved spending quality time with her three precious children, her fiancé whom she adored, her mom whom she shared a special bond with, and all of her dear siblings. Michelle was beautiful, smart, extremely funny, very out-going, and most of all God-fearing. Anyone who knew Michelle could tell you that she loved life, and she showed it in her love of fashion, and how she enjoyed singing and dancing. We will truly miss her great personality and big heart.

Michelle is preceded in death by her grandmother, Vivian Franklin; great aunt, Beverly Williams; father, Ricky Mack; and uncles, Lester Williams, Willie James Williams, Horace Williams and Walter Williams.

Michelle leaves to cherish her memory: her three children, Mishayla Carcana, Jayden Carcana, and Kordell Graham; her mother, Vanessa Sumpter; her stepfather, James Proctor; her fiancé, Shannon Graham; her sisters, Tanisha Mack and Princess Proctor; her brothers, Rachester Sumpter and Joshua Proctor; her aunts, Lisa and Shahana; her uncle, William; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.
