Reflections of Life

Willie James Tolliver was born on April 24, 1955 in Livingston, Alabama to Clarence Tolliver and Annie Wynn Tolliver, and resided in Paterson, NJ most of his life.

He was employed as a Machine Operator at Alfred Dunner in Parsippany and Morristown, NJ for many years. After spending time in Morristown, he changed his lifestyle, and moved to Paterson, where he became a deacon at the Madison Avenue Baptist Church. He served the community in many ways, including prayer walks, and working in the homeless shelter. He was well liked, and well known in the Paterson area.

He leaves to cherish sweet memories a daughter, Tanisha Tolliver; one son, Willie Tolliver; two brothers, Leroy Tolliver, and Burrile Tolliver; two sisters, Linda Tolliver, and Annie Tolliver; two grandchildren; and a host of other relatives, friends and neighbors.

Final Disposition

Cedar Lawn Crematory
Paterson, New Jersey
