Obituary

A Loving Wife, Daughter, Mother and a Good Friend. Rhonda Calliste-Renaud, age 42 died peacefully on March 24th, 2020 in a fight against Leukemia and Lymphoma. She was born March 12th, 1978 in Port of Spain, Trinidad. She left this world leaving behind a husband "Stephen Renaud", A father "Harold Calliste", two daughters "Shernise Calliste" & "Stephanie Renaud" and two grandchildren "Emily Calliste" & "Kylie Fleary".

Rhonda was full of life, sweet, and caring. When she entered the room, her spirit illuminated all around. She had such a beautiful soul, a very strong one. Fearless and brave, she was a fighter. Family is everything to her. She was uniquely creative. In her spare time, she likes to create things such as curtains, chair covers, and kid's headbands. She was open to learning new things . Helping and giving back to the community was a passion of her. She was a member of PS.181 Parent-teacher association. Every Saturday, she volunteers at a food pantry helping people who are in need. Her kindness and personality made people love her.

Her faith, putting God first and the love that she had for others is the reason why we loved and cherished her. Our memories of her will forever live in our hearts. She will be missed dearly but never forgotten.

Precious Memories
